ADFC

Australian Dairy Farmers Co-operative (ADFC) is an independent dairy co-op run by Australian dairy farmers.

ADFC farmers are based in the western district and northern Victoria and they supply around 125 million litres of milk to the cooperative's two partners – Bulla Dairy Foods and Procal Dairies.

The co-op was formed in 2012 with a firm and guiding principal: to look after farmers and ensure that milk pricing is fair for them.

The ADFC Board and management team believe the key to a thriving Australian dairy industry lies with farmers running profitable businesses so they can invest back into their farms. With security assured, ADFC farmers can produce quality milk, adhere to best practice in animal welfare, care for the environment and develop their dairy businesses.

ADFC's core values are the four Cs:

- Collaborative the co-op will not compete with its customers, instead it will co-invest to maximise efficiency of the supply chain.
- Co-operative our farmers are all members and shareholders in the business and share the risk and success.
- Choice a flat milk pricing structure allows ADFC farmers to choose the milk production pattern that is best suited for their farm.
- And finally, Cost-effective a farmerfocused, low-cost model underpins ADFC's operations and business development decisions.

Chairman's Report

The 2014-2015 financial year was a big one for ADFC and it firmly established the co-operative as a niche player in the Australian dairy industry. We started working with a new partner, we significantly increased our supplier base and milk production, we became truly independent, we opened the conversation about taking the co-operative to a new level, and we restructured our board and staff.

While all of this happened, ADFC continued to remain true to its guiding principles – of treating its farmers fairly and helping them run profitable businesses. It was these principles which saw our farmers back a plan for them to become potential investors in ADFC and for the co-operative to fully explore its options and seek investment opportunities. By investing in the business and effectively sharing the risk with our partners, farmers are ensuring they get the highest possible return at the farm gate. When a co-operative model is followed – the benefits flow to the farmers.

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

We opened the 2014-15 financial year very strongly with the commencement of a new contract to supply milk to Bulla Dairy Foods, having entered into a partnership with the iconic Australian dairy company in May 2014. The opening milk prices were set high in line with other processors and market conditions at the time. Our average price in Victoria was around $6.50 a kilogram of milk solids.

July, August and September: Over three months we welcomed 48 new suppliers to ADFC and we started supplying around 105 million litres of milk to Bulla on an annualised basis.

August 2014: Beenish Shiraz joined ADFC as the Finance Manager and Company Secretary.

September 2014: On September 1, Paul Kerr joined the business as its General Manager replacing Greg Griffiths, who finished up as executive officer and secretary in August. I would like to thank Greg for his contribution to ADFC. The move was one of the first in a series of steps that would eventually see ADFC officially separate from Dairy Farmers Milk Co-operative (DFMC) – the co-operative that established ADFC in 2012.

December 2014: We had our last pick up of milk from our suppliers in south east Queensland and northern New South Wales with the milk supply contract between ADFC and Richmond Dairies coming to a mutual conclusion at the end of 2014.

March 2015: Supplier meetings were held in Colac, Allansford and Echuca. The ADFC Board and management team started the discussion with our farmers about the possible future direction of the co-operative. We received overwhelming support from our suppliers to develop a plan that could see our farmers invest in ADFC – and in turn see ADFC look for investment opportunities.

May 2015: ADFC officially separated from DFMC and the three remaining DFMC board members finished up on the ADFC Board. This was a significant step for ADFC and an important move to allow the co-operative to operate and grow in its own right. I would like to thank the DFMC management team and directors for their advice and support during ADFC's set up phase.

June 2015: Cath Jenkins was appointed as an interim director on the ADFC Board and served in this position for three months. We thank her for her time and advice as we took the co-operative's development plan to our farmers for their input.

June-July 2015: We opened the 2015-16 financial year with a milk price of $5.87 a kilogram of milk solids for both our Procal and Bulla suppliers. There were tough market conditions to contend with and processors opened with lower prices than last year. We were pleased to be able to offer a premium price that was fair and competitive. As always, we worked closely with our partners Bulla and Procal to arrive at the price.

LOOKING AHEAD

ADFC is set to continue to evolve and develop for the 2015-16 season. The co-operative has some bold plans as it continues to stay true to its founding values. Here's what is in store for the 2015-16 season:

- ADFC suppliers to become members and shareholders
- ADFC rules to be changed to allow for future development and investment
- PwC to be engaged to find an investment partner
- New ADFC Board members
- New ADFC Board Advisory Committee
- Potential equity raising and share subscription

We will continue to work closely with our partners Bulla Dairy Foods and Procal Dairies. Both dairy companies remain committed to the partnership with ADFC as we all focus on running successful businesses that ensure growth and prosperity for each party. We look forward to continuing to work with them and welcoming another partner to work with ADFC in 2016.

In conclusion: This is an exciting time for ADFC and a great opportunity for our farmers to create the type of dairy business that can provide a fair model that they need. We have the right ingredients: we are independent, we are flexible, we can work with multiple processors and partners, and we have a simple guiding goal: to always seek fairness for our farmers.

It has been a great honour to serve as ADFC Chairman for the 2014-2015 financial year and I thank my family, my fellow board members, the ADFC management team and all the ADFC farmers for making this year such a dynamic and enjoyable one.

Scott Sieben Chairman

CEO's Report

ADFC has continued to grow as a business during the 2014-15 financial year. I joined ADFC in September 2014 and was given the task of developing a strategic plan for the business.

Work began immediately and it became very clear that if ADFC was to succeed, it needed to be more than just a milk trading business. If ADFC farmers wanted to have a say in their future, then they would need to find a way to invest in processing assets.

From this premise, we have developed a strategic plan that will give our farmers the opportunity to invest in ADFC and in turn for ADFC to seek investment opportunities, which will give security of supply for our farmers and will also allow them to have more input into milk pricing.

Our initial discussion with our farmers took place early in 2015 and they showed overwhelming support for the business to look at its options. These options include the possibility of seeking an investment partner and co-investing in a new processing facility. Only time will tell if this is possible and we will continue to discuss all our options with our farmers for the remainder of 2015 and 2016.

In order to execute the strategic plan, ADFC has had to make some changes and restructure parts of the business. This process began during the year and the first stage of this was completed with the separation of ADFC from DFMC. The restructure process will continue in 2015-16 with all our suppliers coming on as members and with the business implementing a new constitution.

There will be challenges as we progress with our plan, but we have the right people working on it to give ADFC the best possible chance of securing a bright future for our farmers.

I am looking forward to another exciting and challenging year ahead.

Finally I would like to thank everyone for all their hard work and commitment to ADFC during the 2014-15 financial year.

Paul Kerr

Chief Executive Officer

Looking ahead: ADFC Board & Committee

The ADFC Board will continue to evolve along with the co-operative. The 2014-15 financial year saw the remaining DFMC directors end their terms and an interim member appointed. Heading into 2015-16 ADFC's Board of Directors will work with a Board Advisory Committee so there will be six ADFC farmers overseeing the co-operative's development and restructure phase.

Board of Directors

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial report are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all years presented, unless otherwise stated. The financial report is for Australian Dairy Farmers Co-operative Limited ('ADFC' or the 'Co-operative'), an entity Co-operative incorporated and domiciled in Australia.

(a) Basis of preparation

The Group has elected to adopt the Australian Accounting Standards – Reduced Disclosure Requirements (established by AASB 1053 Application of Tiers of Australian Accounting Standards and AASB 2010-2 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from Reduced Disclosure Requirements).

These financial statements are general purpose financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards – Reduced Disclosure Requirements and the Corporations Act 2001. Australian Dairy Farmers Co-operative is a for-profit entity for the purpose of preparing the financial statements.

These financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and are based on historical cost modified where applicable by the measurement at fair value of selected non-current assets, financial assets and financial liabilities.

(b) Cash and cash equivalents

For cash flow statement presentation purposes, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand and deposits held at call with financial institutions which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value, and bank overdrafts.

(c) Trade and other receivables

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value, which is typically the invoice value, and are subsequently measured at amortised cost less provision for impairment. Trade and other receivables are generally due for settlement within 30 days.

The collectability of receivables, are reviewed on an ongoing basis and a provision for impairment is established when there is objective evidence that the Co-operative will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables.

(d) Intangible assets

Acquired intangible assets

Acquired computer software licences are capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and install the specific software.

Subsequent measurement

All intangible assets are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalised costs are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, as these assets are considered finite. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date. The following useful lives are applied:

Software: 4 years

Subsequent expenditures on the maintenance of computer software and brand names are expensed as incurred.

When an intangible asset is disposed of, the gain or loss on disposal is determined as the difference between the proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, and is recognised in profit or loss within other income or other expenses.

(e) Trade and other payables

Trade creditors and accruals typically represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Co-operative prior to the end of the financial year and which are unpaid. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 30 days of recognition.

(f) Foreign currency translation

The financial statements are presented in Australian dollars, which is the Co-operative's functional and presentation currency.

(g) Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are net of returns, trade allowances, rebates and amounts collected on behalf of third parties.

Revenue is recognised when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and specific criteria have been met for each of the Co-operative's activities as described below. The amount of revenue is not considered to be reliably measurable until all contingencies relating to the sale have been resolved.

Revenue is recognised for the major business activities as follows:

(i) Sale of goods

A sale is recorded when the goods have been delivered to and accepted by the customer or its agent and collectability of the related receivable is probable.

(ii) Interest revenue

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest method.

(h) Members' share capital

Ordinary shares are initially recorded at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortised cost. As a result, the liability is measured at $1.00 per share. When ordinary shares are repurchased, the consideration of $1.00 per share is deducted from members' share capital.

(i) Goods and services tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of associated GST, unless the GST incurred is not recoverable from the taxation authority. In this case it is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense.

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from or payable to the taxation authority is included with trade and other receivables or payables in the balance sheet.

Cash flows are presented on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing or financing activities which are recoverable from or payable to the taxation authority are presented in operating cash flows.

(j) Income tax

Tax expense recognised in profit or loss comprises the sum of deferred tax and current tax not recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current income tax assets and/or liabilities comprise those obligations to, or claims from, the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and other fiscal authorities relating to the current or prior reporting periods, that are unpaid at the reporting date. Current tax is payable on taxable profit, which differs from profit or loss in the financial statements. Calculation of current tax is based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income taxes are calculated using the liability method on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. However, deferred tax is not provided on the initial recognition of goodwill, or on the initial recognition of an asset or liability unless the related transaction is a business combination or affects tax or accounting profit.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are calculated, without discounting, at tax rates that are expected to apply to their respective period of realisation, provided they are enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that they will be able to be utilised against future taxable income, based on the Co-operative's forecast of future operating results which is adjusted for significant non-taxable income and expenses and specific limits to the use of any unused tax loss or credit. Deferred tax liabilities are always provided for in full.

Changes in deferred tax assets or liabilities are recognised as a component of tax income or expense in profit or loss, except where they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the related deferred tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or equity, respectively.

(k) Going Concern

At 30 June 2015 the Co-operative's total assets exceed its liabilities by $222,567 and incurred a positive net cash inflow from operations of $531,887. In the current year the Co-operative has generated operating profit and repaid the funding provided by Dairy Farmers Milk Co-operative. Based on this, the directors are of the opinion that the Co-operative will be able to continue as a going concern and accordingly, the financial statements have been prepared on this basis.

(I) Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions to the instrument. For financial assets, this is equivalent to the date that the company commits itself to either purchase or sell the asset (i.e. trade date accounting is adopted).

Financial instruments are initially measured at fair value plus transactions costs except where the instrument is classified 'at fair value through profit or loss' in which case transaction costs are expensed to profit or loss immediately.

Classification and subsequent measurement

Financial instruments are subsequently measured at either fair value, amortised cost using the effective interest rate method or cost. Fair value represents the amount for which an asset could be exchanged or a liability settled, between knowledgeable, willing parties. Where available, quoted prices in an active market are used to determine fair value. In other circumstances, valuation techniques are adopted.

Amortised cost is calculated as: (i) the amount at which the financial asset or financial liability is measured at initial recognition, (ii) less principal repayments, (iii) plus or minus the cumulative amortisation of the difference, if any, between the amount initially recognised and the maturity amount calculated using the effective interest method; and (iv) less any reduction for impairment.

The effective interest method is used to allocate interest income or interest expense over the relevant period and is equivalent to the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts (including fees, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life (or when this cannot be reliably predicted, the contractual term) of the financial instrument to the net carrying amount of the financial asset or financial liability. Revisions to expected future net cash flows will necessitate an adjustment to the carrying value with a consequential recognition of an income or expense in profit or loss.

The Co-operative does not designate any interests in subsidiaries, associates or joint venture entities as being subject to the requirements of Accounting Standards specifically applicable to financial instruments.

I. Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market and are subsequently measured at amortised cost.

Loans and receivables are included in current assets, except for those which are not expected to mature within 12 months after the end of the reporting period, which will be classified as non-current assets.

II. Financial liabilities

Non-derivative financial liabilities (excluding financial guarantees) are subsequently measured at amortised cost.

Derecognition

Financial assets are derecognised where the contractual rights to receipt of cash flows expires or the asset is transferred to another party whereby the entity no longer has any significant continuing involvement in the risks and benefits associated with the asset. Financial liabilities are derecognised where the related obligations are either discharged, cancelled or expire. The difference between the carrying value of the financial liability extinguished or transferred to another party and the fair value of consideration paid, including the transfer of non-cash assets or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss.

(m) New accounting standards

1. Changes in accounting policies

1.1 New and revised standards are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2014

A number of new and revised standards became effective for annual periods beginning or after July 1 2014. Information on these new standards is presented below.

- i) AASB 2013-3 Amendments to AASB 136 Recoverable Amount Disclosures for Non-Financial Assets removes the requirement to disclose the recoverable amount of a cash-generating unit (CGU) to which goodwill or other intangible assets with indefinite useful lives had been allocated when there has been no impairment or reversal of impairment of the related CGU. Furthermore, the amendments introduce additional disclosure requirement applicable to when the recoverable amount of an asset or CGU is measured at fair value less costs of disposal. These new disclosures include in the fair value hierarchy, key assumptions and valuation techniques used which are in line with the disclosures required by AASB 13 'Fair Value Measurements'. The application of these arrangements does not have any material impact on the disclosures on the financial statements.
- ii) AASB 2014-1 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards (Part A: Annual Improvements 2010–2012 and 2011–2013 Cycles) includes a number of amendments to various AASBs as follows:
 - Amendment to AASB 2 changes the definitions of 'vesting condition' and 'service condition' that apply to share-based transactions granted after 1 July 2014.
 - Amendment to AASB 8 requires disclosure of the judgement made by management in applying aggregation criteria to operating segments and clarifies that a reconciliation of the total of the reportable segments' assets to the Group's total asset should only be provided it the segment assets are regularly provided to the chief operating decision-maker.
 - Amendment to AASB 124 clarifies the definition of a 'related party' includes a management entity that provides key management personnel services to the reporting entity (either directly or through a group entity).

The adoption of all the new and revised standards and interpretations has not resulted in any changes to the Co-operative's accounting policies and has no material impact on the disclosures or on the amounts recognised in the financial statements.

The following new accounting standards, amendments to standards and interpretations (Standards) has been issued and are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after 30 June 2015, but have not been applied in preparing this financial report. None of these are expected to have a significant effect on the financial report of the Co-operative unless otherwise noted in the Standards below. The Co-operative has not or does not plan to adopt these Standards early and the extent of their impact has not been fully determined unless otherwise noted below.

i) AASB 9 Financial Instruments (effective for annual reporting periods on or after 1 January 2018)
AASB 9 introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement and de-recognition of financial asset and financial liabilities. It aims to replace AASB 139 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement in its entirety. The new standard also sets out new rules for hedge accounting and introduces expanded disclosure requirements and changes in presentation.

The Co-operative has determined that the changes in AASB 9 are not expected to materially affect the Co-operatives accounting for financial assets and financial liabilities, as none have been designated at fair value through profit or loss where the changes night have had an impact.

The Co-operative will adopt the new standard at the operative date and accordingly, its first application will be in the financial statements for the annual reporting period ending 30 June 2019.

ii) IFRS 15 Revenue from Contract with Customers (effective for annual reporting periods on or after 1 January 2017) The revenue-related interpretations in IFRS 15 will include the establishing of a new control-based revenue recognition model, changing the basis for deciding whether revenue is to be recognised over time or at a point in time, the provision of new and more detailed guidance on specific topics (eg multiple element arrangements, variable pricing, rights of return, warranties, licensing). The new standard will also expand and improve disclosures about revenue. The Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) is expected to issue the equivalent Australian Standard (AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers).

The Co-operative has not yet assessed the full impact of this standard.

There are no other standards that are not yet effective and that are expected to have a material impact on the entity in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions

NOTE 18: MEMBERS CAPITAL

	Number of Shares	Nominal Value
Opening balance – shares of $1 each (fully paid)	8	8
Share issue	17	-
-Closing Balance	25	8

Ordinary shares

Note that in accordance with AIFRS, members' share capital ('ordinary shares') is treated as a liability. Classification in this manner occurs because the Co-operative must forfeit and ultimately repay share capital that is forfeited under the inactive membership rules contained in the Co-operatives Act 2012 (as amended) and the Rules of the Co-operative.

Ordinary shares entitle the holder to participate in dividends of the Co-operative in proportion to the number of shares held.

On a show of hands every holder of ordinary shares present at a meeting in person or by proxy is entitled to one vote and upon a poll each shareholder is entitled to one vote.

Capital management

The Co-operative's objective when managing capital is to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns to members and for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal structure to reduce costs of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure the Co-operative may reduce its share capital, adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders including through the dividend re-investment plan (currently suspended) or may guarantee capital through deductions from payments to members of milk supplies under the terms of its share acquisition program (currently suspended).

The board of directors and the audit, finance and governance committee monitor the capital needs of the Co-operative.

NOTE 19: EVENTS AFTER THE REPORTING PERIOD

Subsequent to year end existing supplier farmers have purchased $1 membership shares in line with the rules of the Co-operative. At the date of the report there are 79 shareholders.

NOTE 20: CO-OPERATIVE DETAILS

The registered office and principal place of business is: Level 14, Australia Square, 264-278 George Street, Sydney NSW, 2000

Directors' Declaration

The directors of the Co-operative declare that:

- (a) the financial statements and notes set out on pages 16 to 28 are in accordance with the Co-operatives (Adoption of National Law) Act 2012 and the Corporations Act 2001, including:
 - (i) complying with Australian Accounting Standards Reduced Disclosure Requirements (including the Australian Accounting Interpretations), the Co-operatives (Adoption of National Law) Act 2012, the Corporations Regulations 2001 and other mandatory professional reporting requirements; and
 - (ii) giving a true and fair view of the Co-operative's financial position as at 30 June 2015 and of its performance for the year ended on that date.
- (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Co-operative will be able to pay its debts as and when they become due and payable.

This declaration is made in accordance with a resolution of the directors.

Independent Auditor's Report To the Members of Australian Dairy Farmers Co-operative Limited

We have audited the accompanying financial report of Australian Dairy Farmers Co-operative Limited (the "Co-operative"), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2015, the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information and the Directors' declaration of the Co-operative.

Directors' responsibility for the financial report

The Directors of the Co-operative are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards - Reduced Disclosure Requirements, the Corporations Act 2001 and the Co-operatives (Adoption of National Law) Act 2012. The Directors' responsibility also includes such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Cooperative's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Co-operative's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our audit, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

Auditor's opinion

In our opinion, the financial report of Australian Dairy Farmers Co-operative Limited is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- a giving a true and fair view of the entity's financial position as at 30 June 2015 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and
- b complying with Australian Accounting Standards Reduced Disclosure Requirements and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

Report on the legal and regulatory requirements

In our opinion, the financial report of Australian Dairy Farmers Co-operative Limited gives a true and fair view of the Co-operative's financial position as at 30 June 2015 and of its performance for the year ended on that date, in accordance with the requirements of the Co-operatives (Adoption of National Law) Act 2012.
